EVENT OVERVIEWS

12

The 'Burbs: A nice, quiet, peaceful neighborhood...the perfect place to get a feel for your new Rollerblade skates and have fun annoying the locals! Or is it? Seems that several Rollerblade Racers have passed this way before and, in response, the town council has set some traps -- like open manholes, surprise road blocks and a team of hassling homeowners!

Barrel Jumping: Your first bonus level takes place at Rollerblades Raceway's Barrel Jumping Arena. Try to leap over as many barrels as you can to rack up some points. It'll take all your skill and even more of your courage to make it over three in one jump!

City Streets: Hey, wake up! You're not in the 'Burbs anymore! To skate through this town and live to tell your friends about it, you need speed, skill and a sharp eye. Sure there's plenty of scenery, but there are also playful dogs, bustling commuters, midtown traffic and the occasional open manhole and confusing detour. But if you make it here, you can make it anywhere...almost!

The Cones: Hope your hips are in good working order, 'cause this little number will twist you every which way but straight! Speed through the course as fast as you can while avoiding the cones. Every bump means you lose some points. So watch it!

Hit the Beach: Sun, fun, sand and surf. Where else for a skater to get in shape and catch some rays? How 'bout a tanning salon! 'Cause this oceanfront property doesn't take too kindly to folks with wheels on their feet. Seagulls peck at you. Frisbees fly at you. Beachballs bombard you. Hey, nobody ever said becoming a champion Rollerblade Racer would be a day at the beach! (ouch!)

The Half-Pipe: Now you're ready for some Rollerblade originals- stunts only the best of the best can perform successfully. In the Half-Pipe event, you'll have the opportunity to show off your handstand and flipping skills.

Flip: Crossover left or right to the edge of the Half-Pipe while holding down the B Button. Be sure to move away from the edge while you're in the air.*

Panic Park: Forget about taking a carefree stroll through nature. First of all, there's the dogs. Then you have to jump over all those cracks in the sidewalk and skate down flights of stairs. Plus, there's the dogs. And if one of those not-so-cute little babies get in the way, you're in real trouble. Oh, did we mention the dogs?

Super Rollerblade Challenge: This is it! The Main Event. Your score and performance so far have earned you a coveted place in this competition. But before you have the right to call yourself a Rollerblade Racer, you'll have to put everything you've learned, everything you've experienced to the ultimate test. It's just you against the clock. Go for it!
